"It's only we," I cried; "we two!"
But all he answered was "Who? Who?"

"Just Rose and I—er—course, you know, There's Cupid with his silver bow!
But 'tis not thee he seeks to maim—
The elf is out for bigger game!"

And then that owl went straight to bed, Shut tight his eyes, tucked in his head,

INTERIOR VIEW OF CATHEDRAL OF THE SACRED HEART.
The splendid structure is now nearing completion. This is a reproduction of the first satisfactory photograph ever made of the interior of this sacred edifice given by Mr. Thomas F. Ryan to the Catholics of Richmond.

And brashly quered, "Who? Who?"
Who?"

"It's only Rose and I," I said,
"And you would better go to bed, Instead of rudely staring thus With your big eyes a-down at us," But Mr. Owl, with much ado, He petulantly hooted "Who?"

"It's Rose," I said, "Just Rose and I; Beside us two there's no one nigh, We're sitting here upon the brink—
And what is more, I do not think, It's extra nice to thus pursue, Your impolite, persistent 'Who?'"

The big owl blinked his eyes at me From out the foliage of the tree;
"Who? Who? Who? Who?" he Weirdly shrieked.

And then at Rose and me he pecked.

Prophets and Prophecies.

During the autumn there was no lack of prophets with their prophecies concerning the winter to come. It was foretold that this would prove a season of unusual severity; that all signs pointed to a rigorous reign of the weather king; that the New Year would appear in the midst of storm, and that snow would fall to an unusual depth and lie on the ground for a long time.

Up to this time prophecies have failed.
It is now almost midwinter, and, with the exception of one short but severe sleet, pleasant days and sunshines have been the rule.

It is to be hoped that the January to come and February will not depart from the auspicious beginning and make good the forecasting noted above, for Virginia people will be quite satisfied to dispense with snow and sleet and enjoy in their stead a bright, wintry atmosphere, preceding an early spring.

New Year's week has proved very bright in a social way. There have been receptions, dinners, teas and dances a-plenty, and all classes of society have enjoyed them. The dance given New Year's night by the Monday German was pronounced in every way to have been one of the most beautiful of its kind ever attended.

Miss Gay Montague entertained a number of young friends the same evening at a dance in the executive mansion; the young girls who were at home for the holidays and who, with Miss Gay, returned to their schools later in the week, were filling engagements for luncheons, dances and box parties to the last moment of their stay.

The young gentlemen of the Mount Vernon were hosts of a very pleasant group at the Hermitage Golf Club on Thursday evening, followed by a twelve o'clock supper, served on their return from the club, and on Friday evening Miss Katherine Copeland gave a dance to a few of her friends at the Richmond Hotel, which was one of the prettiest affairs of the season.

Guests were welcomed in the beautiful ball-room of the Richmond and supper was served in the dining-room, where the tables were decorated with American flowers and white roses. Miss Copeland, who was a most charming hostess, was assisted in doing the honors by Mr. W. S.
Copeland, her father, and by Mr. and Mrs. Granville Valentine.

The Tuesday German will give its dance this week on Monday, instead of Tuesday evening, as usual. After tomorrow, the remaining dances will take place on alternate Tuesday evenings, January 9th being the only date for which desired arrangements could not be consummated.

The wedding of Miss Blanche Copman, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Joseph T.
Martin, to Mr. George Herman Williams, of Berkeley, Va., is announced to take place in this city on Wednesday next, at 6 o'clock P. M., and will be an occasion of interest to the many friends of a very popular young couple.

The Pittsburgh Lee Monument Association Committee will hold an important meeting Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, in the home of Mrs. N. V. Randolph, No.
611 East Franklin Street.

The monthly meeting of the Richmond Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, will be held in Lee Camp Hall Wednesday, at 11 A. M.

Richmond and Washington society is interested in the Bachelors' German, to take place in the national capital at the New Willard Hotel on the evening of Wednesday, January 10th. Elaborate preparations have been made and favorable figures promise to be extremely profitable.

AMONG THE CLUBS.

Mrs. Weil Gives Reading.

Mrs. Helen Weil, of Boston, known in Richmond and elsewhere as an artist of unusual powers, will give a dramatic reading under the auspices of the lecture committee, at the Woman's Club tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

The reader will be introduced by Mrs.
J. A. Lefroy, chairman of the lecture course. The reading selections will be taken from Gerhart Hauptmann's "Hanneta," and the reader will be accompanied on the violin by Miss Roberta Allen, who traveled with Mrs. Weil in her coming from Washington to Richmond.

The entertainment promises, in the interest of the subject and the rendition of the programme, to be one of the most attractive of the entire season.

Business Meeting.

The Kate Wheelock Whist Club will hold a business and social meeting on Wednesday next with Miss Nannie Robinson, No. 116 West Avenue.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Box Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Christian Gordon gave an Academy box party last night at the Mansfield in "Don Carlos." The party was in honor of Misses Polly Robins and Fanny Robins, other guests being Dr. Stuart Michaux and Mr. Nelson Robins.

House Party.

Mrs. Catlett and her daughter, Miss Louise Catlett, of Three Square, Goochland county, entertained most charmingly.
